		R: To describe the characters in familiar stories and structure stories with a beginning, middle and end
Literacy Outcomes: Writing	Writing Pre: Begin to understand the cause and effect involved in their mark making N: Include mark making in their play and distinguish between different marks they make. R: Give meaning to the marks they make in a wider range of contexts. Begin to break the flow of speech into words, to hear and say the initial sound in words and start to segment the sounds in words and blend them together. Attempt to write their own name using recognisable letters	Writing Pre: Enjoy the sensory experience of making marks N: Ascribe meaning to signs, symbols and words they see and make. Start to imitate adult's writing in play. R: Start to use phonic knowledge linking sounds to letters, naming and sounding some of the letters of the alphabet, identifying letters and writing recognisable letters in sequence to write simple words.	Writing Pre: To experiment with making marks with different tools and materials. N: To begin to mark make for a purpose e.g make a birthday card R: To use their developing phonic knowledge begin to write words, simple captions and their name and enjoy creating texts to communicate meaning for a wider range of purposes e.g invitations, cards, lists, stories		Writing Pre: To begin to attach meaning to their mark making. N: To use mark making to represent their ideas and understand their ideas can be recorded as written words e.g. drawing illustrations for their own picture books with adults scribing their story. Begin to make letter type shapes to represent initial sounds of significant or familiar words e.g. M for mum or the first letter of their name R: To use their developing phonic knowledge to write simple sentences e.g. creating their own books. Read back their writing to check it makes sense. .

Essential Knowledge : Early Learning Goals
Literacy: Reading	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Children read and understand simple sentences. They use phonic knowledge to decode regular words and read them aloud accurately. They also read some common irregular words. They demonstrate understanding when talking with others about what they have read.
Literacy: Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Children use their phonic knowledge to write words in ways which match their spoken sounds. They also write some irregular common words. They write simple sentences which can be read by themselves and others. Some words are spelt correctly and others are phonetically plausible.
Physical Development: Moving and Handling	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Handle equipment and tools effectively, including pencils for writing.

Alan Peat Sentence Types
Sentence Type	Example	Rule
2A sentences	He was a tall, awkward man with an old, crumpled jacket. It was an overgrown, messy garden with a leafless, lifeless tree. The huge, green tractor ploughed the wet, muddy field.	A 2Ad sentence has two adjectives before the first noun and two adjectives before the second noun. This sentence creates a clear picture for the reader.
BOYS sentences	He was a friendly man most of the time, but he could become nasty. He could be really friendly or he could be really miserable. It was a beautiful morning for a walk so he set off quite happily.	A B.O.Y.S sentence is a two-part sentence. The first part of the sentence always ends with a comma (,) and the last part always begins with a connective.
List Sentences	It was a dark, long, leafy lane. She had a cold, cruel cackle. It was a cold, wet, miserable Wednesday afternoon. His hair was long, brown and unwashed.	A list sentence must have 3 or 4 adjectives before the noun. Use and between the final 2 adjectives
Short	Oh no! Then it happened. He stopped.	1-3 word sentences possibly with an exclamation mark or question mark.

	Everything failed. The door opened. What’s wrong?			Begin to discuss exclamations, questions, statements and commands with the children.
All the Ws sentences	Would there ever be another opportunity like this one? Who would take over this role now? What if you had all of the money in the world? Why do zebras have stripes?			Your short sentence must start with one of the following W words: Who? What? When? Where? Why? Would? Was? What if?
Reading

Alan Peat Sentence Types

Sentence Type	Example	Rule
2A Sentences	He was a tall, awkward man with an old, crumpled jacket. It was an overgrown, messy garden with a leafless, lifeless tree. The huge, green tractor ploughed the wet, muddy field.	A 2Ad sentence has two adjectives before the first noun and two adjectives before the second noun. This sentence creates a clear picture for the reader.
Emotion, comma	Desperate, she screamed for help. Terrified, he froze instantly on the spot where he stood. Anxious, they began to realise they were lost. Happily, the astronaut stepped safely from the shuttle.	Emotion first followed by the actions that are caused by the emotion. Putting the word first gives more weight to the emotion. When teaching, provide an A-Z list of emotions the children could use.
Verb, person	Running, Sarah almost tripped over her own feet. Tiptoeing, he tried to sneak out across the landing without waking anybody up.	A sentence starts with a verb to give it more importance. The verb is always followed by a comma and then a name or a personal pronoun (he, she, they, it) followed by the rest of the sentence
With a(n) action, more action	With a smile, Greg waved goodbye. With a weary wail, Thor launched his final attack With a deep breath, Neil Armstrong stepped carefully on to the surface of the moon.	This two-part sentence starts with a subordinate clause which starts with the phrase 'With a(n)...' followed by an action and a comma. The main clause then describes more action which occurs simultaneously.

Sentence Type	Example	Rule
3 __ed	Frightened, terrified, exhausted, they ran from the creature. Amused, amazed, excited, he left the circus reluctantly. Confused, troubled, worried, she didn't know what had happened.	Stars with three adjectives that end in _ed and describe emotions. The _ed words MUST be followed by commas.
Noun, which/who/where	Cakes, which taste fantastic, are not so good for your health. Snakes, which scare me, are not always poisonous. Tom, who was a little shorter than the others, still made it into the football team.	Use commas to embed a clause within a sentence, add information that links with the sentence topic and start the clause with which, who or where.
2 pairs sentences	Exhausted and worried, cold and hungry, they didn't know how much further they had to go. Injured and terrified, numb and fearful, he couldn't believe that this was happening to him. Quickly and quietly, silently and carefully he tiptoed out of the house.	Begins with two pairs of related adjectives. Each pair is: o Followed by a comma o Separated by and

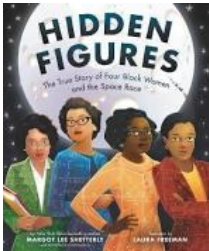

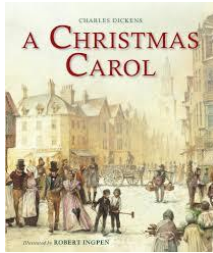

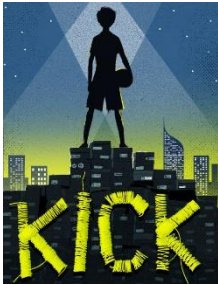

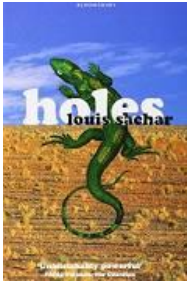

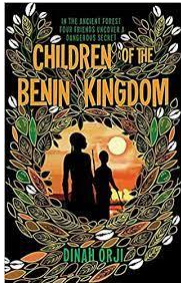

3 bad – (dash) question?	Cold, dark, airlessness – which would kill the spaceman first? Greed, jealousy, hatred – which of these is most evil?	3 negative followed by a dash and then a question which relates to the three adjectives.
Name – adjective pair – sentences	Little Tim – happy and generous – was always fun to be around. Ben Roberts – weak and nervy – was actually a secret superhero. Glass – fragile and dangerous – must be handled with care.	This works on a show and tell basis where the name and details form the main clause (tell). The added information within the dashes shows what the character was like. The two must be linked.
O. (I.)	She told the little girl not to be so naughty. (Inside, however, she was secretly amused by what she had done.) I was delighted (but I felt scared that something was about to go wrong). Bravely I looked behind me (but I was deeply worried).	The first sentence tells the reader a character's outward action and the second reveals their true feelings. If the sentence within the brackets is complete, the full stop goes inside the bracket. If it is not complete, the full stop goes outside.

Sentence Type	Example	Rule
De:De Sentence	The vampire is a dreadful creature: It kills by sucking all the blood from its victims. Snails are slow: They take hours to cross the shortest of distances. I was exhausted: I hadn’t slept for more than two days.	Two independent clauses (they make sense on their own) are separated by a colon (:) <ul style="list-style-type: none">o The first clause is descriptiveo The second adds further detail
Some; others	Some people like football; others hate it. Some days are full of enjoyment; others are long and boring. Some dogs were running around happily; others looked tired.	Some; others sentences begin with the word some and have a semi-colon to replace the word but. There is no capital letter after the semi-colon.
Imagine 3 examples:	Imagine a place where the sun always, shines, where wars never happen, where no-one ever dies: in the Andromeda 5 system, there is such a planet	Sentence begins with <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The word imagine- Then describes three parts of something- The first two parts are separated by commas- The third ends with a colon
The more, the more	The more it rained, the more depressed he became. The more the crowd cheered, the more he looked forward to the race. The more upset she was, the more she cried.	This sentence type is particularly useful when developing a character trait in a story. The first more should be followed by an emotive word and the second more should be followed by a related action.
‘Irony’ sentences	Our ‘luxury’ hotel turned out to be a farm building. With dawn breaking, the ‘beautiful view’ which the brochure described, revealed itself to be a scrap-yard and a rubbish tip. The ‘trip of our dreams’ was, in fact, our worst nightmare.	An irony sentence deliberately overstates how good or bad something is and this is placed in ‘inverted commas’. The overstated word is then shown to be false through the remainder of the sentence which reveals the truth.
Emotion – consequence	Davis was angry – he threw his toy at the wall. The professor was inconsolable – he wept for days on end. King Henry was furious – he ordered the execution of his wife.	This two part sentence starts with a description of a character’s emotion followed by a dash (-) and a description of a consequence of that feeling.
Tell: show 3 examples; sentences	He was feeling relaxed: shoes off; shirt undone; lying on the sofa.	This is a two part sentence. The first part tells the reader a broad-ranging fact/opinion.

	The commander was tense: sweat dripping; eyes narrowed; staring out on the battlefield. It was a sleepy town: shops shuttered; cats lazing in the shade; dogs snoozing in the sun.			This is followed by a colon which demonstrates that a list of examples will follow. After the colon the list of 3 examples follows. As this is a phrase list, semi-colons are used between the details rather than commas.
Reading
The core texts identified above are used for Whole Class Reading sessions. We also use other books, poems and extracts that complement the core text and topics being studied in History, Geography and Science. This helps to re-enforce new vocabulary and deepen understanding
